The following Instructional Memorandum No. 14—51 CCI (General) issued by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India, regarding the import of Built-up cars into India, is republished for general information

Instructional Memorandum.

"Reference Instructional Memorandum No. 13-CCI (General), dated the 27th August 1951, on the above subject.

The following further decisions have been reached:—

(1) The import of Estate Cars, Station Wagons, Jeeps and similar vehicles may be allowed as baggage from dollar countries also as in the case of soft currency countries.

(2) The import of buses and transport vehicles should not be allowed as baggage whether from soft currency countries or dollar countries.

(3) Import of motor vehicles need not be confined to one unit permit per family. A passenger and his wife may both bring a car from dollar area provided each of them satisfies the conditions regarding residence, ownership, etc., in respect of the vehicle which they are bringing out.

(4) The concession of bringing a car and a motor cycle should be treated as mutually exclusive. In other words no passenger can bring both.

(5) No individual should be allowed to bring a motor vehicle oftener than once in two years. For this purpose it would suffice if a declaration to this effect that he had not brought a car within the preceding two years is obtained from the passenger."

The following Circular issued by the Director-General, Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department, New Delhi, regarding the use of Service Postage Stamps by private persons during elections, is republished for general information :—

POST OFFICE CIRCULAR.

Use of Service Postage Stamps by private persons during elections.

"According to the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, certain persons are entitled to post their ballot/voting papers without having to bear the postage charges due thereon. The Government of India have since decided that such of the persons who are entitled to post their voting/ballot papers free of postage should be supplied with the service postage stamps in advance so that the covers, etc., containing the ballot papers posted by such persons may be prepaid with service postage stamps. A copy of the Notification permitting the use of service postage stamps is printed below for information.

2. The categories of the persons who are entitled to use these service postage stamps are :—

(i) a member of the armed forces of the Union to whom the provisions of sub-section (3) (6) of Section 20 of the Act applies ;

(ii) a person holding any office in India declared by the President to be an office to which the provisions of sub-section (4) of that Section applies ;

(iii) a person wko is employed under the Government of India in a post outside India;

(iv) the wife of any such person referred to in (1), (ii) and (iii) above ;

(v) any person subjected to preventive detention under any law for the time being in force subject to the fulfilment of such requirements as may be specified.

3. These concessions will also apply in connection with elections to the State Legislatures also, wherever a provision is made in the respective State Acts relating to the election of Members to the Legislatures of the States."
